

Chiu Hak Fai Alick RN, FHKAN(Perioperative)

Mr Chiu is currently the Department Operation Manager (DOM) of the Operating Theatre & Sterile Supply Department in the North District Hospital, He has been appointed as the Hong Kong Surveyor of the Australian Council on Health Care Standard (ACHS) since 2012 and he is experienced in surveying both private and HA hospitals in Hong Kong. On top of his expertise in Perioperative Nursing and Sterilization Science, Mr. Chiu's expertise also includes hospital planning. His contribution included working as the advisor for the extension project of Pok Oi and Prince of Wales Hospital.

Mr. Chiu is devoted to leading development within his profession. He is currently the President of the Hong Kong College of Perioperative Nursing, the Board Members of the Asian Perioperative Nurses Association, Past Chairman and present Council member of the Hong Kong Operating Room Nurses Association and he is also the Nurse Education Director for the Simulation Training Centre of the HK College of Anaesthesiologists.