

Prof. Duygu PERCİN, MD

Duygu PERCİN graduated from Erciyes University Faculty of Medicine in Kayseri in 1992 and became specialist in Clinical Microbiology in the same university in 2000. Since then she has been involved in numerous research projects, national and international collaborations dealing with bacteriology, health care-associated infections, disinfection, and sterilization. She has contributed to a number of peer reviews, publications and book chapters in the field, and has been previously an invited speaker at several national and international scientific congresses. Duygu PERCİN is currently a Professor at Department of Clinical Microbiology, Erciyes University Faculty of Medicine.

She is the President of DAS, Turkish Society for Disinfection Antisepsis and Disinfection which organised numerous activities to improve sterilization and disinfection practices in Turkey. She is also the vice president of World Federation for Hospital Sterilization Sciences (WFHSS). She is the director and lecturer of certification course program for Central Sterile Supply Department workers in Continuous Education Center of Erciyes University.