

Janet Prust Short bio:*Healthcare

Ms. Janet Prust is an active member of Association for Advancement of Medical Instrumentation (AAMI), including the AAMI Board of Directors, AMMI Standards Board, and currently serves as co-chair of the AAMI Chemical Sterilants Hospital Practices Working Group. She is also an associate or industry member of APIC, EOSA, IAHCSMM, SGNA, AORN, and MHCSMA.

Ms. Prust holds a degree from the University of Minnesota, USA in Clinical Science and has obtained multiple healthcare related certifications. She has over thirty years of health care industry experience including surgical services, occupational health, industrial and healthcare sterilization and clinical practice. She has two issued patents, multiple publications and has presented CEU accredited courses in the U.S. and internationally on a variety of standards, disinfection/ sterilization and infection control topics related to device reprocessing.

Ms Prust is currently with 3M Infection Prevention Division as Director – Standards and Global Scientific Affairs. During her time with 3M she has held positions of increasing responsibility including clinical research, technical support, management, marketing, standards leadership and business development.