

Dr Liza TO
Principal Medical & Health Officer
Surveillance and Epidemiology Branch
Centre for Health Protection
Department of Health

Dr Liza TO obtained her medical degree at the Chinese University of Hong Kong in 1993. She graduated with Master of Public Health and Postgraduate Diploma in Epidemiology & Biostatistics at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. She obtained Fellowship in Community Medicine from the Hong Kong Academy of Medicine in 2006. Dr TO joined the Department of Health in 1997. She has special interest in communicable disease control and prevention as well as rapid response and preparedness. She has field epidemiology experience in major incidents including SARS, Swine Flu, Avian Flu as well as chemical and radiological incidents. She has been working in the Centre for Health Protection of the Department of Health since its establishment in 2004. She is currently the Principal Medical & Health Officer of the Surveillance and Epidemiology Branch of the Centre for Health Protection.